▶ SPRING NOTES

2016 OUTBACK BOWL CHAMPS

■ Tennessee came away with its second consecutive bowl victory as the 23rd-ranked Vols dominated #13 Northwestern, 45-6, in the 30th anniversary Outback Bowl on Jan. 1, 2016 at Raymond James Stadium in Tampa. The rout marked Tennessee's largest-ever margin of victory in a bowl game.

■ The win improved Tennessee's record in bowl games to 27-24 all-time. The Vols' 51 all-time bowl appearances tie for fourth all-time in college football history.

■ The bowl win gave UT its first nine-win season since 2007, when they went 9-3. It also gave the Volunteers a six-game winning streak to close the season, their longest since 2003 when Tennessee won its final six regular season games.

■ Running back Jalen Hurd earned Outback Bowl MVP honors after rushing for 130 yards and a touchdown. He became the first player in Tennessee history to rush for 100-plus yards in two bowl games as he had racked up 122 yards on the ground in the 2015 TaxSlayer Bowl win over Iowa.

■ Quarterback Joshua Dobbs rushed for a pair of touchdowns for the second consecutive bowl game, finishing with 48 rushing yards. He was 14-of-16 for 166 yards passing in the win.

■ Redshirt senior tight end Alex Ellis led the Vols in receiving in his final game as a Vol. He logged three catches for 74 yards, including a 42-yard reception in the first quarter.

■ While Tennessee's defense tallied four sacks against Northwestern, defensive back Evan Berry provided the defensive highlight when he intercepted a Northwestern pass in the endzone and returned it 100 yards for a touchdown. The play tied a school record for the longest interception return for a touchdown in Tennessee Football history.

SEARCHING FOR THE 25

■ Tennessee's theme for the spring season revolves around the phrase "searching for the 25." That concept arose from the fact that the Vols are 13-5 over their last 18 games and those five losses came by a combined 25 points.

■ Four of those losses came during the 2015 season when the Vols fell to Oklahoma, Florida, Arkansas, and Alabama—all by a combined 17 points.

■ The Vols' largest margin of defeat during the 2015 season was seven points, coming in UT's 31-24 double overtime loss to Oklahoma at Neyland Stadium on Sept. 12.

COACHING STAFF CHANGES

■ Turning an eye towards 2016 just days after its Outback Bowl victory, Tennessee added two notable coaches to its staff in early January by hiring Larry Scott as tight ends coach and naming Bob Shoop the new defensive coordinator.

■ Scott, formerly a tight ends coach and interim head coach with Miami, agreed in principle to join the Vols on Jan. 4. Shoop, who left his defensive coordinator role at Penn State for the same position on Rocky Top, arrived on Jan. 9.

■ Scott has 15 years of coaching experience, including 11 seasons on the collegiate level, and has coached in eight bowl games. He joined the Miami staff on Feb. 25, 2013 where he oversaw the tight ends unit. He became the 22nd football coach in UM history on Oct. 25, 2015, given the interim tag after Al Golden was fired after seven games. The Hurricanes won four of their last five games under Scott en route to an 8-4 finish.

■ Shoop has 27 years of collegiate coaching experience, including the last two seasons at Penn State. His resume includes 13 seasons as a defensive coordinator with Yale (1994-96), Villanova (1997), William & Mary (2007-10), Vanderbilt (2011-13) and Penn State (2014-15) and three seasons as a head coach at Columbia (2003-05). He has coordinated units that have finished in the Top 25 nationally in total defense in each of the last five years.

MID-YEAR ADDITIONS

■ The Vols welcome three mid-year enrollees as additions to the roster. The trio have participated in offseason workouts and will go through spring practice. Marquill Osborne joins the program as a freshman while D.J. Henderson and Jeff George come in as junior college transfers.

■ In 2015, the Vols added 10 mid-year enrollees, nine of whom played in at least six of the Vols' games last season. Andrew Butcher took a medical redshirt after undergoing knee surgery prior to the season. Freshman Darrin Kirkland Jr. and redshirt sophomore Alvin Kamara played in all 13 of Tennessee's contests, and five mid-year enrollees started at least one game last season.

BY THE SLIMMEST OF MARGINS

■ Tennessee's combined margin of defeat of 17 points was the fewest of any FBS program that finished with three or more losses last season.

■ Tennessee's combined margin of defeat of 17 points was the fewest of any FBS program that finished with three or more losses last season.

■ When examining programs that finished with four or fewer losses, Tennessee's combined margin of defeat was fewer than all but that of six programs in 2015: Alabama (3), Ohio State (3), Houston (3), Clemson (5), Toledo. (10), and Stanford (12). None of those six programs suffered more than two defeats last season.

■ Tennessee's combined margin of defeat of 17 points was the fewest of any FBS program that finished with three or more losses last season.

■ Of those six programs, only Alabama and Clemson—college football's national finalists—boasted a stronger strength of schedule than Tennessee, according to the NCAA's toughest schedule metric.

MOST RETURNING STARTS

■ One of the most youthful teams in the country over the past two seasons, Tennessee will trade in that youth for experience in 2016.

■ According to Phil Steele, with 17 returning starters on offense and defense, the Vols are one of just four Power 5 programs with 17 or more returning starters heading into the 2016 season. Only LSU (18) and Louisville (18) boast more returning starters, while Florida State also returns 17 starters. The Vols return 9 starters on offense (losing only WR Von Pearson and LT Kyler Kerbyson) and eight starters on defense (losing DL Owen Williams, FS Brian Randolph, and SS LaDarrell McNeil).

■ The 9 returning starters on offense are tied with LSU for the most in the SEC.

■ Phil Steele lists Tennessee's 17 returning starters as a tie for fifth overall among all FBS programs. Kent State and Wyoming join LSU and Louisville at the top of the overall list with 18 returning starters.

FACING TOUGHEST SCHEDULE

■ Based on the NCAA's strength of schedule formula, the Vols have faced the fifth-toughest schedule in the nation over the last three years. Tennessee's combined opponents over the last two years have a composite record of 238-160 for a 59.7 win percentage.

■ In 2015, the Vols had the 18th-most difficult schedule with a combined mark of 80-54, a 59.7 win percentage.

■ In 2014, the Vols had the 10th-most difficult slate with a combined mark of 79-54, a 59.4 win percentage.

■ In 2013, Butch Jones' first season on Rocky Top, the Vols played the toughest schedule according to the NCAA formula with opponents combined record of 79-42 ranking at the top with a 65.3 win percentage.

◢ Most Difficult Schedules (Last Three Seasons)
1. Auburn	64.4	264-146
2. Ole Miss	63.0	252-148
Alabama	63.0	274-161
4. Arkansas	61.9	240-148
5. Tennessee	59.7	238-160

ORANGE SWARM IN EFFECT

■ Tennessee's defense has made remarkable strides over the past three seasons since Butch Jones has been hired. Most notably, the Vols lowered their scoring defense from 35.7 in 2012 to 20.0 in 2015, an improvement of more than two touchdowns at 15.7 points per game.

■ The Vols sliced more than 100 yards off their total defense allowed per game, taking the total from 471.3 yards per game in 2012 to 362.0 in 2015. The Vols' national ranking in total defense has gone from 107th three years ago to 36th in both 2014 and 2015.

■ Similarly, the Vols have become one of the nation's most dominant teams on third down after posting the country's second-best third down conversion defense last season (27.6). In 2012, Tennessee ranked 50th overall in third down conversion defense.

SIX STRAIGHT HEADING IN

■ Tennessee closed the regular-season with six consecutive victories and capped the streak in dominating fashion with a 45-6 victory over No. 13 Northwestern (1/1) in the Outback Bowl.

■ The Vols are one of just four FBS programs that will enter the 2016 season on an active winning streak of six games or more. The six-game streak is also tied for the third-longest active streak in FBS, trailing only Alabama (12) and San Diego State (10).

■ Tennessee's defense stood out during the streak as it is allowed only 304.7 yards of total offense per game. Compare that figure to the 362.0 yards per game it surrendered during the entirety of the 2015 season.

■ Even more notable, Tennessee allowed 411.1 yards per game over the first seven games of the season, shaving 106.4 yards per game off that mark during the streak.

■ During the streak, opposing defenses were a combined 21-of-86 on third down—a conversion rate of just 24.4 percent.

■ UT outgained its opponents by a combined tally of 846-290 in the opening quarter over the six-game streak. That's an average of 141-48 in that span.

VOLS RUNNING WILD

■ With the total of 226 rushing yards in the Outback Bowl win over Northwestern (1/1), the Vols capped an incredible season on the ground in which it ran for the second most yards in program history (2,908).

■ Only the 1951 National Champion Vols rushed for more yards in a single season.

Best Rushing Seasons in Tennessee History

1. 1951 (3,068)	3. 1950 (2,710)
2. 2015 (2,908)	4. 1989 (2,701)

■ The Vols tallied nine games of 200-plus rushing yards in 2015, including two games of 300-plus. Tennessee opened the season with 399 rushing yards in a win over Bowling Green (9/5) and later racked up 331 rushing yards against Vanderbilt (11/28)—the most vs. an SEC opponent in a non-overtime game since rushing for 406 vs. Vandy in 1994.

■ The Vols' 223.7 average rushing yards per game is the best since averaging 245.5 yards per game in 1989.

■ Tennessee's rushing charge was led by sophomore All-SEC Second Team tailback Jalen Hurd. Hurd rushed for 100-plus yards in each of the last three games, a career-best 151 yards at Mizzou (11/21), and 130 against Northwestern en route to Outback Bowl MVP honors.

■ He surpassed the 1,000-yard mark for the season in the game at Mizzou and finished with 1,288 for the season—the seventh-best single season mark in program history.

■ Hurd is the 18th Vol to post a 1,000-yard season and first to do so as a sophomore.

■ Hurd has 2,187 yards in his two seasons on Rocky Top and stands just 891 yard shy of Travis Henry's (1997-2000) career rushing record of 3,078.

50 IS NIFTY

■ The Vols scored 50-plus points four times in 2015, the most 50-plus games since 1993.

■ The Vols' 53 points vs. Vanderbilt were most vs. an SEC opponent since 2003 (beat Mississippi State 59-21).

■ Tennessee also defeated Bowling Green, 59-30; Western Carolina, 55-10 and Kentucky, 52-21.

DOBBS AT THE HELM

■ Senior QB Joshua Dobbs gears up for his second full season as Tennessee's starting quarterback, owning a 14-5 record over his last 19 starts dating to 2013.

■ Over those 19 starts, the Vols have averaged 34.2 points and over 424 yards per game.

■ During those 19 games, he has accounted for 57.9 percent of Tennessee's total offense and owns a 14-1 when rushing for more than 20 yards.

■ Making his 15th career start for the Volunteers, Dobbs delivered a signature win when he helped lift Tennessee to a thrilling 38-31, come-from-behind victory over No. 19/16 Georgia (10/10).

■ Dobbs turned in one of the finest games of his career as the Vols overcame a 21-point, second-quarter deficit en route to their first win over a ranked opponent in two seasons. Dobbs accounted for 430 yards of total offense, posting a career-high 312 yards passing and another 118 yards rushing. He recorded five touchdowns on the day, throwing for three scores & rushing for two more.

■ The 312-yard passing day marked a career-high as he accounted for a whopping 82.9 percent of UT's total offense in the game. It was also the third 100-yard rushing game of his career.

■ It was just the second time in Tennessee history that a player recorded 300+ yards passing and 100+ yards rushing. Dobbs was the first to accomplish the feat, doing so against South Carolina last year.

OFFENSE RISING

■ The 2015 Tennessee offense—under new offensive coordinator Mike DeBord—vastly outperformed the 2014 edition.

■ The Vols racked up 5,490 yards of total offense last season—an average of 422.3 yards per contest. That mark signaled a considerable boost from the 2014 season during which UT recorded 370.5 yards of total offense per game through 13 contests (4,817 yards).

■ In 2014 Tennessee averaged 146.4 rushing yards per game compared to 223.7 in 2015.

■ Tennessee's 2015 offense also outscoring its 2014 counterparts as it is averaged 35.2 points per game (457 points). In 2014, the Volunteer offense scored at a rate of 28.9 points per game (376 points)—a difference of 6.3 points per game.

■ The Vols finished third in the SEC in scoring offense with 34.3 points per game, behind Ole Miss (40.8) and Arkansas (35.9).

SPECIAL TEAMS, ESPECIALLY

■ Last year, the Vols averaged 33.4 yards per kickoff return and 17.2 yards per punt return—good for an FBS ranking of first and fourth in those categories, respectively.

■ Tennessee was the only program in the FBS to rank inside the top five in both kickoff returns and punt returns during the 2015 season and led the NCAA with a school record six special teams returns for touchdowns.

■ Since 2000, only three teams have posted more special teams touchdowns in a season: Miami (Fla.) in 2005 with eight; North Carolina in 2014 with seven and Texas in 2010 with seven.

◢ Most Special Teams Touchdowns Since 2000

SCHOOL	PR TDs	KR TDs	TOTAL
2005 Miami, Fla.	7	1	8
2014 North Carolina	5	2	7
2010 Texas	4	3	7
2015 Tennessee*	3	3	6

 12 other teams also have six in a season since 2000*

■ Tennessee made program history when it recorded two special teams touchdowns against Western Carolina (9/19), returning a kickoff (Evan Berry) and a punt (Alvin Kamara) for a score in the same game for the first time since 1950 vs. Washington & Lee.

■ Incredibly, UT duplicated the feat at Kentucky (10/31) as Evan Berry notched his third kickoff return for TD of the season and Cameron Sutton took a punt back for a score for the second time in his career.

#BERRYFAST

■ In 2016, Tennessee returns the nation's top kickoff returner in reigning SEC Special Teams Player of the Year Evan Berry.

■ Berry not only led the nation in kickoff returns at 38.3 yards per return last season, he was one of four FBS players with three or more kickoff return touchdowns.

3. Rashaad Penny, San Diego St.	23	704	30.6
4. Rodney Adams, South Florida	15	458	30.5

■ Berry tied the record for the most kickoff return touchdowns in a season in SEC history with three, joining former Vol Willie Gault and a pair of players from 2009: Brandon Boykin of Georgia and Warren Norman of Vanderbilt.

■ Berry logged the most "big plays" of any Volunteer in 2015—meaning that he produced more plays of 20 yards or greater than any other Vol. In all, UT has produced 83 big plays this season—13 of which came from Evan Berry kick returns.

BUTCH JONES

HEAD COACH

FOURTH SEASON AT TENNESSEE
FERRIS STATE '90

The University of Tennessee announced on Dec. 7, 2012 the hiring of Butch Jones as the 24th head football coach of the Vols. Jones owns a 71-44 record (.617) in nine seasons as a head coach, and his teams have earned bowl appearances in seven of his first nine seasons as a head coach. Jones is 42-26 (.618) in conference play, 60-5 when leading at halftime and 60-6 when leading after three quarters. Jones joined UT from the University of Cincinnati, where he finished with a 23-14 record (.657) in three seasons with the Bearcats.

Jones led the Vols to an 9-4 regular-season record in 2015, marking Tennessee's best season since 2007. Under Jones, UT won bowls in back-to-back seasons for the first time since 1995-96. Tennessee finished the 2015 season on a six-game winning streak, marking the Vols' longest streak since winning the final six regular-season contests of 2003.

The Vols closed the 2015 season with a 45-6 dominating win over #13 Northwestern in the Outback Bowl. It was Tennessee's largest margin of victory in its' storied bowl history.

Tennessee was ranked 22nd in the final Associated Press Poll and 23rd in the Coaches Poll.

In 2015, Tennessee had one of the nation's top rushing attacks. The Vols ranked 20th in the nation and second in the SEC with 2,908 rushing yards, the second-most in Tennessee history. Jalen Hurd (1,288 rushing yards) produced the 18th 1,000-rushing-yard season by a Vol in program history.

UT's special teams were a strength for the Vols in 2015 as the Big Orange led the nation in kickoff return average (33.41) and ranked fourth in punt return average (17.2). All-American Evan Berry was the country's top kick returner (38.3 average) and he was just one of four players with three kickoff return touchdowns. Fellow All-American Cameron Sutton led all punt returners with an 18.7-yard average and was one of 11 players with two brought back for touchdowns. Punter Trevor Daniel ranked eighth in the nation and second in the SEC with a 45.7-yard average. The Vols' defense led the SEC and ranked second nationally with a .276 opposing third-down conversion percentage.

Tennessee finished the 2014 season, its second under Jones, with a 7-6 record that included a 45-28 win over Iowa in the TaxSlayer Bowl in Jacksonville which marked the first January bowl game for UT since the 2007 season. The Vols opened the 2014 season by playing 21 true freshmen in a 38-7 win over Utah State, the most true freshmen to play in a season opener in UT history. Overall, Tennessee led the nation overall last season with 23 true freshman playing in 2014, with 12 true freshmen starting games for the Vols during the season.

Jones and his staff have been relentless on the recruiting trail since arriving in Knoxville. In February 2014, UT signed a consensus top 10 recruiting class that was ranked as high as top five by most media outlets. Jones has prioritized the state of Tennessee in his recruiting efforts, and the 2014 class featured the overwhelming majority of the top talent in the state of Tennessee signing with the Vols, including Freshman All-American and All-SEC performer Derek Barnett, a multitude of Freshman All-SEC players (Barnett, Todd Kelly, Jr., Jashon Robertson), and team's leading rusher in 2014, Jalen Hurd.

The 2015 recruiting class was once again ranked in the Top 5, by most services giving the Vols back-to-back Top 5 recruiting classes for the first time in school history. Ten of those recruits arrived early in Knoxville in January 2015.

A staple of Jones' programs has been success in the classroom, and the UT program has also made great strides academically during his tenure. The program has posted the highest team GPAs in program history during Jones' tenure, including a record 2.85 in Spring in 2015 and previous record mark of 2.77 GPA in the Fall of 2014.

The program has also increased its cumulative GPA in each of the last six semesters. Additionally, Tennessee also posted the best APR scores in program history in each of his first two semesters as head coach, including a perfect 1000 score in Spring 2013 and no eligibility points lost in either semester.

Graduation is a top priority for Jones, as 14 of 18 seniors on the 2014 team received their degrees prior to the TaxSlayer

Bowl, with the other four on track to do so by either May or August 2015. A total of 21 of 24 seniors from the 2013 team have graduated, with two in the NFL and on track to do so through the RAC (Renewing Academic Commitment) program and the other having graduated from the Knoxville Police Academy.

In his first season on Rocky Top, the Vols defeated No. 11/9 South Carolina, the first win for UT over a ranked opponent since 2009. The win over the Gamecocks in 2014, when the Vols trailed by 14 with less than two minutes remaining, marked the biggest comeback in school history that late in a game. Also in 2014, the 95 combined points against South Carolina (45) and Kentucky (50) are the most for Tennessee in consecutive games since 2003, while the 50 points and the 34-point margin of victory over Kentucky (50-16) are the most for UT since 2010.

Jones was also the head coach for three years at Central Michigan (27-13, .675, from 2007-09). He has won at least eight games in five of his six years as a head coach, including three seasons of nine-plus wins in the last four years (2009, 2011, 2012). Jones also has won 10 or more games twice, finishing 11-2 at CMU in 2009 and posting a 10-3 record and top 25 final national ranking with Cincinnati in 2011. Jones has also finished the season ranked in the top 25 in three of the last four seasons (2009 with CMU and 2011-12 at Cincinnati).

Jones has won four conference championships in his nine seasons as a head coach, including the Big East title in 2011 and 2012 with Cincinnati and the 2007 and 2009 Mid-American Conference titles at Central Michigan. He earned Big East Conference Coach of the Year honors after his 10-win season with the Bearcats in 2011 and earned the same honor from CBSSports.com in 2012, a year in which his squad captured its second consecutive bowl victory while also finishing with a top 25 ranking. UC finished the regular season 9-3 with a 5-2 league record to share the Big East crown.

In 2011, Cincinnati was the only program nationally to win both its conference title and its league top academic honor, earning the 2010-11 Big East Team Academic Excellence Award. Also that same year, JK Schaffer of the Bearcats named the 2011 American Eagle Outfitters Big East Football Scholar-Athlete of the Year, the second consecutive UC player to earn that honor (John Goebel in 2010).

The 2011 UC team that finished 10-3 improved six wins from the 4-8 finish in 2010, making the Bearcats the most improved team from a BCS conference in the nation that season. Cincinnati also recorded its first bowl win over a BCS opponent, defeating Vanderbilt 31-24 in the Liberty Bowl.

Cincinnati placed eight players on the All-Big East Conference team from 2011-12, including Big East Offensive Player of the Year Isaiah Pead and Big East Co-Defensive Player of the Year Derek Wolfe in 2011. Pead closed out his UC career with consecutive 1,000-yard seasons, the first time a Bearcat back has accomplished that in almost 25 years.

Before accepting the head coaching position at Cincinnati, Jones's 27-13 record at Central Michigan included a pair of MAC titles, three consecutive bowl appearances, and a No. 23 postseason ranking in 2009. The Chippewas were 22-3 in the MAC during his tenure, and he was the only head coach to lead the program to consecutive bowl games as well as the first in the history of the MAC to do so in his first three seasons.

THE JONES FILE

Born: January 17, 1968
Wife: Barb
Children: Alex (19), Adam (15), Andrew (9)
Education: Ferris State '90
Hometown: Saugtatuck, Mich.

In addition to coaching Pittsburgh Steelers Pro Bowl receiver Antonio Brown at Central Michigan, one of Jones' players while coaching the Chippewas, offensive lineman Eric Fisher, was drafted No. 1 overall in the 2013 NFL Draft by the Kansas City Chiefs. Jones recruited Fisher to join the CMU 2009 where he went on to a decorated career. Joining Fisher in Kansas City was another Jones product, Travis Kelce who was selected in the third round after playing at Cincinnati.

Jones was the wide receivers coach at West Virginia from 2005-06 before he moved to Central Michigan, during which time the Mountaineers went a combined 22-3 and the 2005 squad defeated Georgia in the Sugar Bowl. He served as an assistant at Central Michigan for seven years from 1998-2004, as offensive coordinator (2002-04), running backs coach (1999-2004), and as tight ends coach (1998). Jones was also the offensive coordinator at Ferris State from 1995-97 and at Wilkes University from 1993-94 and also served as an assistant at Rutgers from 1990-92.

Jones is a 1990 graduate of Ferris State University in Michigan, where he was a two-year letterman in football. His original entry into the coaching ranks was as an intern with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers from 1987-89.

Jones and his wife, Barb, are the parents of three sons: Alex (18), Adam (14), and Andrew (8). Alex joined the team as a kicker in 2015.

CONDREDGE HOLLOWAY

ASST. AD/STUDENT-ATHLETE RELATIONS

19TH SEASON AT TENNESSEE
TENNESSEE '91

• Condredge Holloway is in his 19th year on the Tennessee staff and continues to serve as a vital link between the current Vols football staff and its storied history

• UT's Assistant Athletics Director for Student-Athlete Relations and Letterman also is one of the most celebrated players in school history

• In 2011, Holloway's amazing career was the subject of an ESPN documentary, "The Color Orange: The Condredge Holloway Story," produced by Kenny Chesney. It recounted the life and playing days of the SEC's first African-American starting quarterback

• Holloway primarily serves as the department's liaison with the Lettermen's Club, assisting with reunions and other projects. Holloway also is the point person for numerous issues surrounding the conduct of a major college football program. Holloway has taken great pride in helping former Vols find their niche in the business world by assisting them with contacts and employment opportunities following graduation

• Holloway remains associated in the minds of Tennessee fans with the razzle-dazzle offense he quarterbacked during his undergraduate days of the 1970s

• Nicknamed "The Artful Dodger," Holloway packed excitement into every play, whether it developed into a pass or a scramble

• In his three seasons (1972-74) as a starter, Holloway directed the Vols to the 1972 Astro-Bluebonnet, 1973 Gator and 1974 Liberty bowls and an overall record of 25-9-2. He ended his career with the best interception-to-attempt ratio in Tennessee history, throwing just 12 interceptions in 407 collegiate attempts

• In addition to being the first black quarterback at Tennessee and in the Southeastern Conference, Holloway also was the first black baseball player in UT history

• The outstanding prospect had been selected out of high school by the Montreal Expos with their first overall pick. Holloway opted instead for a two-sport collegiate career and went on to excel on the diamond. He garnered All-SEC and All-America honors as a shortstop in 1975 and finished with a .353 career batting average

• Holloway -- still the owner of UT's longest hitting streak at 27 games -- was selected to Tennessee's All-Century Baseball Team, making him the only UT student-athlete named to all-century squads in both baseball and football

• Drafted by the New England Patriots in the 12th round as a defensive back, but chose to pursue a career as a quarterback in Canada

• Holloway left Knoxville and played 13 seasons in the Canadian Football League, compiling impressive numbers for the Ottawa Rough Riders (1975-80), Toronto Argonauts (1981-86) and British Columbia Lions (1987). He threw for more than 25,000 yards and rushed for another 3,167 while scoring 155 touchdowns. He was league MVP in 1982

• After his professional playing days ended, Holloway returned to UT and earned his degree

• In addition to his induction in Alabama Sports Hall of Fame, Holloway is a member of the Canadian Football Hall of Fame, Tennessee Sports Hall of Fame and the Tennessee Baseball Hall of Fame, among others

• In May 2015, Holloway's baseball jersey No. 1 was officially retired at Tennessee's Lindsey Nelson Stadium.

• Holloway is married to the former Courtney Haralson of Meigs County and is the father of Jasmine and Condredge III

DR. JIMMY G. CHEEK

UT KNOXVILLE CHANCELLOR

NINTH YEAR AT TENNESSEE
TEXAS A&M '69

Jimmy G. Cheek became the seventh chancellor of the University of Tennessee, Knoxville, on February 1, 2009.

Within a year of taking office, the chancellor set a goal for UT to become a Top 25 public research university in a decade. This aggressive initiative sparked exciting momentum around improving undergraduate education, graduate education, research, campus infrastructure, and additional financial resources.

Several new academic and student service buildings have been built or significantly renovated since 2009. An unprecedented $1 billion in campus construction is now underway or in the design or planning stages. A new student union, classroom and laboratory facilities, and a redeveloped residence hall village will open in the next several years.

Cheek has led great change in the university's delivery of core services that include student advising, tutoring, mentoring, and other support to help our students graduate on time and achieve their academic goals. These changes have dramatically improved retention and graduation rates and brought our metrics closer to those of our Top 25 peers.

The increased support for faculty and staff salaries has aided recruitment and retention efforts of world-class faculty and talented staff. Cheek also has led an effort to enhance our relationships with existing partners, including Oak Ridge National Laboratory, and to create new relationships that broaden our research and opportunities for collaborations with faculty and students.

A first-generation college student, Cheek has set in motion several initiatives to broaden diversity and student access to the university. The university's work on improving access led to Cheek's participation in the White House Summit on increasing college opportunity for low-income students.

He serves of the board of directors for the Association of Public and Land Grant Universities (APLU); as chairman of the group's Commission on Food, Environment, and Renewable Resources; and as a member of the APLU Presidential Advisory Committee on Energy. He serves on the UT-Battelle Board of Governors, the UT Health Sciences Center Board of Directors, the Tennessee Higher Education Commission Master Plan Steering Committee, and the board of the Knoxville Symphony Orchestra. He is chair of the Board of the International Fertilizer Development Center Advisory Committee, a new global research effort to develop and commercialize clean, environmentally sustainable, cost-effective, and renewable fertilizers for the developing world.

Prior to his service with UT, Cheek was a member of the faculty and an administrator at the University of Florida for thirty-four years, last serving as senior vice president of agricultural and natural resources. While at Florida, he received the President's Medallion and Student Body Resolution 2009-104 for dedicated and loyal service to the university and outstanding service to students, respectively, and the Morton Wolfson Faculty Award for outstanding contributions to the quality of student life. He was named to the Academy of Teaching Excellence in 2008, a fellow of the American Association for Agricultural Education in 2005, and a fellow of the North American Colleges and Teachers of Agriculture in 1998. Cheek's research has focused on the influence of experiential learning on student achievement and educational accountability.

Cheek earned a bachelor's degree with high honors and doctorate from Texas A&M University. He received his master's degree from Lamar University. A native of Texas, he is married to Ileen Cheek, and they have two children and three grandchildren.

DR. DONALD BRUCE

FACULTY ATHLETIC REPRESENTATIVE

19TH YEAR AT TENNESSEE
DREW UNIVERSITY '94

Donald Bruce is the Douglas and Brenda Horne Professor of Business in the Center for Business and Economic Research (CBER) and the Department of Economics at the University of Tennessee, Knoxville.

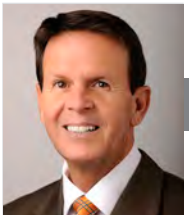
He joined the UTK faculty in 1999 after receiving his M.A. and Ph.D. in Economics from Syracuse University and his B.A. with honors in Economics from Drew University.

As a CBER economist, Dr. Bruce regularly provides objective, non-partisan policy research and evaluation under contracts with an array of government agencies at the federal and state levels. His recent work in CBER has included an ongoing evaluation of Tennessee's welfare program, Families First, for the Tennessee Department of Human Services, an analysis of teacher supply and demand in Tennessee for the Governor's Office of Education Policy, and a forecast of expenditures on Tennessee Education Lottery Scholarships for the Tennessee Higher Education Commission.

In addition to his CBER research, Dr. Bruce studies the economic and behavioral effects of tax policies on such things as small business activity and owner-occupied housing. His work has been presented and published in a variety of academic journals, edited volumes, and professional meetings. He has testified before Congress on the topic of internet taxation, and he presented his work on taxes and small business activity before the President's Advisory Panel on Federal Tax Reform in 2005.

Dr. Bruce regularly teaches graduate and undergraduate courses on the economics of taxation and the economics of health and health care. He has recently served as the Director of Graduate Studies in Economics and the Director of the Undergraduate Major in Public Administration. Before becoming Faculty Athletics Representative, Dr. Bruce served for two years as chair of the Athletics Board's Fiscal Integrity and Long-Range Planning Committee. He has also served as chair of the UTK Faculty Senate's Budget and Planning Committee. Dr. Bruce is an active member of the National Tax Association, the International Institute of Public Finance, and the American, Southern, and Western Economic Associations. His community service has included numerous economic and policy presentations for state and local organizations, and he currently serves as Chairman of the Board of Innovative Education Partnership, the non-profit governing body of the Clayton-Bradley STEM Academy in Blount County.

Dr. Bruce lives in Walland, Tenn, with his wife Jennifer, a mathematics teacher at Clayton-Bradley, and their daughter Annie.



DAVE HART

VICE CHANCELLOR/DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

SIXTH YEAR AT TENNESSEE
ALABAMA '71

The University of Tennessee named Dave Hart vice chancellor and director of athletics on Sept. 5, 2011. Hart has previously held leadership roles in athletics administration at East Carolina University, Florida State University and the University of Alabama.

"Under Dave's leadership, we are making huge strides toward achieving comprehensive excellence," said Chancellor Jimmy G. Cheek. "Our student-athletes have broken records with their academic performance, and their competitive spirit will drive them to win championships."

Among the many challenges and goals being addressed in the first three years of his tenure at Tennessee, Hart has led efforts which included the following:

• Restructured the athletics department to provide for greater efficiency.

• Hired the following head coaches: Butch Jones (football), Rick Barnes (Men's Basketball), Holly Warlick (women's basketball), Brian Pensky (soccer), Beth Alford-Sullivan (Track & Field/Cross Country) while also naming Matt Kredich to lead a combined swimming and diving program.

• Named Dr. Joe Scogin to lead the Thornton Student Life Center. Dr. Scogin's efforts in reorganizing the Thornton Center have had an immediate impact, resulting in unprecedented academic success for Tennessee student-athletes.

• Launched the Campaign for Comprehensive Excellence, creating an opportunity for donors to partner with the athletic program toward achievement of this collective goal, prioritizing capital projects.

• As a part of the Campaign, Hart was instrumental in the planning, fundraising, and completion of two capital projects: Pat Summitt Plaza, which honors the greatest coach in basketball history, and the Ray and Lucy Hand Digital Studio, a state-of-the-art production studio second to none in the nation.

• Redefined the athletic department Mission, Vision and Values to focus on the student-athlete.

• Created a new administrative structure going through a "right-sizing" effort in conjunction with the implementation of combining the men and women's athletic programs into one while setting a direction and vision for all units within the department.

• The Compliance Department has been reorganized and capital projects have been reprioritized to dovetail into a strategic plan for the future.

• Policies and procedures have been strengthened throughout the department, as has overall communication.

• Fan experience enhancement options at Neyland Stadium and Thompson-Boling Arena have been prioritized.

"It is an honor to serve in this leadership role at the University of Tennessee," Hart said. "Our mission to inspire student-athletes to achieve comprehensive excellence in competition, the classroom and community service. I am proud of the positive energy that our staff, coaches and student-athletes are generating.

"I am optimistic about what is on the horizon. The future is bright for Tennessee Athletics."

In December 2012, Hart hired Butch Jones from the University of Cincinnati as the head football coach at the University of Tennessee. Since assuming his new role, Jones has brought a renewed sense of energy and optimism, including a win over top 10-ranked South Carolina in October 2013 and signing a consensus top five recruiting classes in 2014 and 2015. Jones led the Vols to their first game in four years in 2014, and Hart extended Jones' contract through the 2020 season.

Jones led Tennessee to its first bowl win since 2008, with a 45-28 dominating win over Iowa in the 2015 TaxSlayer Bowl. With an 8-4 regular-season record in 2015, the Vols will play in the 30th annual Outback Bowl on Jan. 1, 2016, in Tampa, Fla., marking the first time Tennessee will play in back-to-back bowls since the 2009 and 2010 seasons.

Hart also hired Holly Warlick to follow the legendary Pat Summitt as the head coach of Tennessee's women's basketball program, and Warlick led the Lady Vols to SEC championships in each of her first two seasons.

In the 2012-13 athletic year, Tennessee won national championships in three events and finished third nationally in women's swimming and diving under Matt Kredich, the former UT women's coach whom Hart chose to lead a combined men's and women's swimming and diving program. Hart also hired Brian Pensky to lead the Tennessee soccer program, and the squad made an NCAA tournament appearance in Pensky's first season. The men's basketball team also made the Sweet 16 in April 2014.

In just under six years at Tennessee, Hart has worked with Chancellor Jimmy Cheek and Vice Chancellor for Finance and Administration Chris Cimino to build a long-term financial model for Tennessee Athletics.

In conjunction with Provost Susan Martin, the hiring of Dr. Joe Scogin as assistant provost and senior associate athletics director to lead the Thornton Student Life Center has led to excellent classroom performance by UT student-athletes. For the first time since available data was recorded, Tennessee student-athletes posted three consecutive semesters with a 3.00 GPA or above, also accomplishing the feat in three consecutive spring semesters. The Spring 2013 GPA of 3.05 was the highest combined GPA for UT student-athletes all-time. Also, In Spring 2014, four sports posted their highest GPA in team history, and 58% of student-athletes posted a 3.0 GPA or higher. In the most recent Spring semester, a record number of student-athletes graduated.

Comprehensive athletic success exemplified Hart's tenure as the Florida State athletic director, as a combined 35 ACC Championships were won by 10 different Seminole athletic programs during his tenure. Additionally, the Seminole football team won nine ACC titles and appeared in four national championship games, winning the 1999 BCS National Championship with a Sugar Bowl victory over Virginia Tech.

The men's outdoor track and field team also claimed two national championships while the baseball program appeared in the College World Series five times and the softball program won nine ACC titles and played in the Women's College World Series. During Hart's last year at FSU, the Seminoles finished 15th in the Directors' Cup, an all-time high for the institution at that time.

Additionally, during Hart's three years at Alabama, the Crimson Tide football team claimed the 2009 BCS National Championship and the individual athletic teams posted eight combined top-three finishes nationally from 2009-11. Hart has more than 25 years of service as a director of athletics.

Highly respected as a visionary and industry leader, Hart's career has featured service as the president of both the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics and the Division IA Athletics Directors' Association. A former recipient of the Robert R. Neyland Award honoring lifetime achievement, Hart has also been named by his colleagues as the Athletic Director of the Year for the Southeast Region in both 2000 and 2005, one of a few select individuals to receive the honor multiple times.

During his 13 years at Florida State, Hart negotiated unprecedented, multi-million dollar contracts for the department totaling in excess of $175 million and devised and executed an extensive and comprehensive facilities master plan for athletics eclipsing the $150 million mark. Hart initiated a multi-faceted Student Development/Life Skills program for all student-athletes at FSU, an endeavor recognized nationally as a "Program of Excellence" by the Division I-A Athletics Directors' Association.

"Dave is as good an athletic director as there is in the country," legendary Florida State Head Football Coach Bobby Bowden said. "He's as sharp of an AD as I've been around in 57 years. He knows what's important, and he's a builder."

In recognizing Hart's position within intercollegiate athletics, ACC Commissioner John Swofford said, "Dave Hart is one of the best and most respected athletics administrators in the business. He thoroughly understands the nuances of major college athletics, and he has superb values to go along with his vast experience in the field. He is a proven leader at the conference and national levels."

While at FSU, Hart made many key hires, including the hiring of FSU's first two African-American basketball coaches, including current men's coach Leonard Hamilton, as well as their first African-American senior-level administrator. He also placed a significant focus on the growth of women's athletics at FSU, a commitment reflected in increased funding, competitive success and facility upgrades.

Academic success also accompanied Hart's time at FSU, as the school became home to the inaugural National Student-Athlete of the Year, a State of Florida Woman of the Year recipient, and two Rhodes Scholars. Hart has also earned the Athletics Directors' Award for advancing the quality and progress of student-athletes and the athletics program while at Florida State. In 2008, he received the James J. Corbett Award, the highest honor bestowed by National Association of College Directors of Athletics.

Hart served as Executive Director of Athletics at Alabama from August 2008 until accepting his leadership role with the Volunteers. A 1971 Alabama graduate, Hart played basketball for the Crimson Tide under legendary head coach C.M. Newton and earned a master's degree from UA in 1972 while working as a graduate assistant basketball coach.

Hart met his wife, the former Pam Humble, while at Alabama. The couple has three children: Rick, who serves currently as the athletic director at SMU, Jamie and Kelly. The Harts are the grandparents of five grandchildren: Trevor, Caroline, McKinley, Olivia and Kingsley.

For the second-straight year, Tennessee finished the season with a bowl victory as the Vols crushed Northwestern, 45-6, in the 30th Annual Outback Bowl a on Jan. 1, 2016, at Raymond James Stadium in Tampa, Fla. The bowl game was UT's 51st in program history. The Vols' six-game winning streak to close the season was their longest since winning the final six games of the 2003 regular season.

Butch Jones led the Vols to consecutive bowls for the first time since 2009 and 2010 and UT's first nine-win season since going 10-4 in 2007. The Outback Bowl win marked the first time UT had won back-to-back bowl games since the Vols won the 1996 (20-14 over Ohio State) and the 1997 Florida Citrus Bowls.

Jalen Hurd rushed for 130 yards and a touchdown in the win to earn Outback Bowl MVP honors. The UT defense limited the Northwestern offense to just 261 total yards and picked of the Wildcats' quarterbacks four times, including a 100-yard interception return by Evan Berry with eight seconds left in the game.

Tennessee averaged 35.2 points per game in 2015 and held opponents to 20.0 points per game.

2015 VIDEO REVIEWS

REVIEWS IN UT'S FAVOR: 10
NOT IN UT'S FAVOR: 11

1. Bowling Green kick returner Robbie Rhodes returned a kick up the right sideline. Rhodes was initially not called for stepping out of bounds at the 4-yard line before taking the ball up field. The officals reviewed the play and ruled that Rhodes stepped out at the BGSU 4-yard line. (REVERSED)

2. Tennessee quarterback Joshua Dobbs completed a 5-yard pass to Ethan Wolf, who dove at the goal line and was initially ruled down at the 1-yard line. Officials reviewed the play and upheld the ruling that he was down at the 1-yard line. (UPHELD)

3. Oklahoma quarterback Baker Mayfield threw a pass to Durron Neal that was initially ruled a catch. Officials reviewed and it was ruled that Neal did not have possession of the ball. (REVERSED)

4. Oklahoma quarterback Baker Mayfield threw a pass to Sterling Shepard that was initially ruled a catch. Officials reviewed and it was ruled that Shepard did not have possession of the ball. (REVERSED)

5. Tennessee challenged a nine-yard pass completion by Florida's Jake McGee. The call was overturned to a seven-yard gain, where McGee stepped out of bounds on the sideline. (REVERSED)

6. In the third quarter, a fumble by Joshua Dobbs was recovered by Florida's Bryan Cox Jr. After review, Cox's knee was down upon recovering the ball for a one-yard gain. Cox had picked the ball up and ran to the end zone, but the original ruling that he was down shortly after the recovery was confirmed. (UPHELD)

7. Joshua Dobbs' pass to Von Pearson with 8:24 left vs. Arkansas was ruled incomplete. The ruling was upheld that Pearson did not have control of the ball. (UPHELD)

8. In the first quarter against Georgia, Joshua Dobbs rushed 27 yards and dove for the end zone. The ruling on the field was that Dobbs was down at the one-yard line before crossing the goal line. (UPHELD)

9. In the fourth quarter against Alabama, Crimson Tide quarterback Jake Coker completed a 29-yard pass down the sideline to ArDarius Stewart. The ruling on the field was that it was a catch. (UPHELD)

10. Against Kentucky, the call on the field was that Alvin Kamara caught a nine-yard catch for a first down and stepped out of bounds after gaining the first down but before gaining more yards. (UPHELD)

11. In the second quarter against Kentucky, the ruling was that UK's C.J. Conrad had reached the end zone. The ruling was reversed as it was revealed that he was forced out-of-bounds at the one-yard line. (REVERSED)

12. Alvin Kamara's 63-yard run down the left sideline in the second quarter against Kentucky was ruled down at the one-yard line. The ruling was confirmed. (UPHELD)

13. Tennessee cornerback Emmanuel Moseley was called for targeting a Kentucky player on a pass breakup. The call was upheld. (UPHELD)

14. Tennessee safety Brian Randolph was called for targeting a South Carolina player on a sideline tackle. The call was upheld. (UPHELD)

15. In the third quarter against South Carolina, officials ruled that Alvin Kamara was down before fumbling. The replay overturned the call. (REVERSED)

16. In the fourth quarter, South Carolina's Perry Orth completed a pass to Shamier Jeffery. Ruling on the field was that he was down and his forward progress was stopped before a possible fumble. The ruling was upheld. (UPHELD)

17. In the second quarter against Missouri, Darrin Kirkland Jr. recovered a fumble giving the Vols possession at the UT 37-yard line. After review, the ruling on the field was confirmed that it was a fumble and recovered by Kirkland. (UPHELD)

18. In the fourth quarter against Missouri, Tigers quarterback Drew Lock completed a 22-yard pass to Cam Hilton in what whas originally ruled a touchdown. After review, the ruling on the field was overturned and it was ruled that Hilton was down at the one-yard line. (REVERSED)

19. With 1:34 remaining in the second quarter against Vanderbilt Cameron Sutton appeared to intercept a pass near the home sideline, but the pass was ruled incomplete. The replay booth upheld the call on the field. (UPHELD)

20. Todd Kelly Jr. intercepted a Vanderbilt pass with 23 seconds remaining in the second quarter vs. Vandy. The play was reviewed and the call was upheld. (UPHELD)

21. Vanderbilt challenged whether Joshua Dobbs' seven-yard run in the third quarter was good for a first down, as ruled on the field. Replay upheld the call. (UPHELD)

GAME NOTES

#25/25 Tennessee won its first game as a ranked team since defeating Wisconsin in the 2008 Outback Bowl (2007 season).

Tennessee produced a pair of 100-yard rushers for the 16th time in school history, as Alvin Kamara carried the ball 15 times for 144 yards, while Jalen Hurd rolled up 123 yards on 23 tries.

The Vols finished with 399 rushing yards and nearly hit the 400 mark for the first time since Nov. 26, 1994, when they had 406 vs. Vanderbilt. It is the most since that game.

Jalen Hurd had his second consecutive and second overall multiple touchdown game, hitting paydirt three times vs. Bowling Green in the first half. He had two rushing TDs vs. Iowa in the TaxSlayer Bowl last season.

Hurd hit the 100-yard rushing mark for the fifth time in his career and moved past the 1,000-yard rushing tally. He now has 1,022 in 14 games.

A pair of Vols playing their first games led the team statistically, as freshman Jauan Jennings had three catches for 56 receiving yards and redshirt sophomore Alvin Kamara produced 144 yards and two touchdowns on 15 rushes.

#25 Vols Power Past Bowling Green, 59-30

NASHVILLE, Tenn. -- No. 25 Tennessee ran for six touchdowns and picked up 399 of its 604 yards on the ground en route to a 59-30 victory over Bowling Green in Saturday's season opener at Nissan Stadium.

In a return home to the Midstate, sophomore running back Jalen Hurd ran for three touchdowns as Tennessee opened the 2015 season with its most points in a season opener since scoring 63 against Western Kentucky in 2009. Hurd, from the Nashville suburb of Hendersonville, ran for 123 yards. Backfield mate Alvin Kamara also went over the century mark with 144 yards (most-ever by a Vol in his debut) and two scores of his own in his Tennessee debut.

The Vols won their seventh consecutive season opener and have now won 19 of their last 21 openers. Tennessee has now won 21 consecutive openers played in the state of Tennessee, including two in Nashville (2002 and 2015), dating to 1986.

Quarterback Joshua Dobbs threw for 205 yards on 15-of-22 with two touchdowns to Ethan Wolf (11 yards and 18 yards).

Nashville native Josh Malone had three catches for 40 yards. Freshman Jauan Jennings led all UT receivers with 56 yards on three grabs.

The game was delayed 80 minutes in the middle of the third quarter after lightning was detected in the area.

Bowling Green quarterback Matt Johnson piled up 424 yards through the air, going 27-for-49 with two touchdowns. Gehrig Dieter had a career day with seven catches for 133 yards with a score.

The Falcons had 557 yards of total offense. Tennessee finished with 604 yards, its most since racking up 645 against South Carolina on Nov. 1, 2014.

After giving up and early field goal to the Falcons, Tennessee responded fast with three touchdowns, all on the ground as Hurd ran in from 8 and 1 yards while Kamara went around the left end for a 10-yard scamper. That put the Vols up 21-3 with five minutes left in the first quarter. The three scoring drives came in a total time of 5:19 (for an average drive of 1:46).

Bowling Green responded with the game's next three scores to draw within one point at 21-20 with 5:31 left in the first half. Johnson connected on a pair of scoring passes to Hunter Folkertsma (11 yards) and Gehrig Dieter (31 yards).

Hurd's third score of the game and Wolf's scoring catch pushed the Vols' lead back to 15 at halftime, 35-20.

Bowling Green drew to within 49-30 entering the fourth quarter. Tennessee pulled away with 10 more points scored off an 18-yard TD run by Dobbs and a 26-yard field goal by Aaron Medley.

#23 Vols Fall to #19/17 Sooners, 31-24 (2OT)

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. -- No. 23 Tennessee took a 17-3 lead into halftime, but a late second-half surge by No. 19/17 Oklahoma resulted in a 31-24 double-overtime loss for the Vols on Saturday before a sold-out crowd at Neyland Stadium.

The Vols (1-1) and Sooners (2-0) traded touchdowns in the first overtime. OU won the coin toss and elected to play on defense. Jalen Hurd ran in an eight-yard score and Sooners quarterback Baker Mayfield answered with a one-yard TD run on the other end.

In double overtime, the Sooners took their first and only lead of the night when Mayfield hit Sterling Shepard for an 18-yard score. The Vols chance to send the game into triple overtime ended when Zack Sanchez intercepted a Joshua Dobbs pass on 3rd-and-12.

Saturday's game also marked Neyland Stadium's non-conference contest with a ranked UT team facing a ranked foe since the No. 23 Vols defeated No. 9 Cal, 35-18, on Sept. 2, 2006.

The Vols had 254 yards of offense. Hurd ran for 109 yards and one touchdown on 24 carries, marking the ninth 100-yard rushing performance of his career. Hurd's 106 rushing yards are the most OU has allowed to a single player since Oklahoma State's Desmond Roland ran for 144 on Nov. 7, 2013. Dobbs completed 13 of 31 passes for 125 yards with one touchdown and one interception and also rushed for 12 yards and a score.

Mayfield overcame a slow start to finish 19-of-39 for 187 yards with three touchdowns and two interceptions. The OU quarterback ran for 30 of his 46 rushing yards in the second half and also ran for a touchdown. Shepard hauled in seven catches for 74 yards and two scores. Samaje Perine ran for 78 yards on 23 carries and had one receiving TD.

Todd Kelly Jr. ignited the home crowd two minutes in when he intercepted a pass from Mayfield at midfield. The Vols proceeded to take a 3-0 lead after an 11-play, 50-yard drive that ended with a 19-yard field goal by Aaron Medley.

Tennessee scored the first touchdown with 1:56 left in the first quarter when Dobbs connected with Josh Malone for a nine-yard score to wrap an eight-play, 51-yard drive and push the Vols' lead to 10-0. The touchdown was the second of Malone's career.

Oklahoma got on the scoreboard with just under five minutes left in the first half when Austin Seibert made a 35-yard field goal to wrap a nine-play, 57-yard drive.

Tennessee took a 17-3 lead into halftime. The Sooners had productive possessions in the second quarter and the teams entered the half nearly even in yards (Tennessee had 161, OU had 159) and time of possession (UT 14:53, OU 15:07). The Tennessee pass rush made a big impact on the OU passing attack with three quarterback hurries and the UT secondary accounted for three pass break-ups (two by Emmanuel Moseley) in the first half. Mayfield was just 7-of-20 passing with 77 yards and a pick at the half.

OU pulled to within 17-10 with 8:20 remaining when Mayfield found Perine for a two-yard touchdown pass, completing a 14-play, 80-yard drive.

GAME NOTES

Redshirt senior defensive tackle Owen Williams got the first start of his career.

This was the 17th overtime game in Tennessee history, and the Vols fell to 11-6 in those contests.

This was the ninth OT game at Neyland Stadium, and the Big Orange is 6-3.

Jalen Hurd recorded his second 100-yard game of the season, finishing with 109 on 24 carries with a TD

Sophomore strong safety Todd Kelly Jr. came up with the Vol defense's first big play of the day, an interception of a Baker Mayfield pass and a four-yard return to the UT 49 with 13:01 remaining in the first quarter. It was UT's first pick of the year.

Kelly added his second interception of the night with :34 remaining in the third, when he stepped in front of a Mayfield pass and had a one-yard return. Kelly now has five picks for his career and collected his (and UT's) second INT of the season.

The last UT player with two or more interceptions in a game was Brian Randolph vs. Western Kentucky on Sept. 7, 2013.

Redshirt sophomore Trevor Daniel averaged 50.0 on nine punts, booming kicks of 52, 58, 61, 55 and 51 yards to bump his total to six over +50 this season.

FOR THE RECORD

GAME NOTES

Tennessee recorded a kickoff return and a punt return in the same game for the first time since 1950 vs. Washington & Lee, when Bert Rechichar ran back a punt 100 yards and Jimmy Hahn returned a kickoff 83 yards.

Alvin Kamara became only the second Vol to rush for a TD (two yards) and return a punt for a TD (50 yards) in the same game. He joined Stanley Morgan, who did it vs. Maryland in 1975

UT scored 138 points over its first three games, marking its most through three games since scoring 171 to start the 1914 season.

Preston Williams' 98 receiving yards marked the most by a freshman since Marquez North had 102 yards against South Carolina in 2013.

It was the first time a Tennessee receiver had scored a touchdown on his first reception since Jason Croom did so at Oregon in 2013.

The last time a Tennessee freshman had two TD catches in a game was DeAnthony Arnett, who made the only two touchdown receptions of his Volunteer career against Buffalo in 2011.

10 Vols made their playing debuts. Running back Joe Young and defensive lineman Quay Picou saw the first action, increasing UT's total of true freshman playing this season to 17, third-most in FBS.

Vols Fly Past Western Carolina, 55-10

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. -- Tennessee put up 31 points in the second quarter, capped by an 88-yard kickoff return by Evan Berry, and ran away with a 55-10 victory over Western Carolina on Saturday at Neyland Stadium.

Joshua Dobbs completed 15 of 21 passes for 144 yards and two touchdowns. He connected on 12 of his first 13 passes. Jalen Hurd rushed 11 times for 68 yards and a touchdown and caught two passes for 12 yards and a score.

Tennessee (2-1) finished with 447 yards of total offense and 169 special teams yards before a home crowd of 102,136. The UT defense held Western Carolina (1-2) to 279 offensive yards.

The win marked first time UT had recorded a kickoff return TD and a punt return TD in the same game since Oct. 28, 1950, against Washington & Lee.

UT has scored 138 points over its first three games, marking its most through three games since scoring 171 to start the 1914 season.

The Vols set the tone early when Cameron Sutton forced a fumble by Karnorris Benson and Derek Barnett recovered. On the ensuing UT drive, Dobbs hit Williams for a 25-yard touchdown strike to the left corner of the end zone for the freshman wideout's first career score.

On Tennessee's second dive, Aaron Medley made a 20-yard field goal to give UT a 10-0 advantage.

UT's 31 points in the second quarter were its most since scoring 35 points in the first quarter against Arkansas on Nov. 11, 2000.

The Vols' second-quarter scoring spree began when Dobbs found Hurd for a five-yard touchdown with Hurd diving for the pylon.

Medley connected on a 31-yard field goal with 5:12 left in the half. Hurd ran in an eight yard score and Alvin Kamara punched in a two-yard touchdown run in Tennessee's next two possessions to build the lead to 34-0.

Western Carolina put together one of its best drives of the night covering 51 yards over five plays to set up Logan Howard for a 32-yard field goal and the Catamounts' only points of the half.

On the ensuing kickoff, Berry spun his way out of a pile at midfield to sprint down the right sideline for the 88-yard score. It was Tennessee's first kickoff returned for a touchdown since Cordarrelle Patterson took a kick 98 yards for a score against Troy on Nov. 3, 2012.

The Vols took a 41-3 lead into halftime, marking their largest lead at the break since a 42-0 halftime advantage over Austin Peay in the 2013 season opener. UT had 285 total offensive yards in the first half to WCU's 118.

The Tennessee offense scored 14 more points in the third quarter. Four minutes into the half, Kamara returned a punt 50 yards for a touchdown, making him the second Vol ever to post a rushing touchdown and a punt return touchdown in the same game. The other Vol was Stanley Morgan in 1975 against Maryland.

Quinten Dormady found Williams for a 24-yard touchdown with 7:45 left in the third quarter to push UT's lead to 55-3. The score was the first touchdown pass of Dormady's collegiate career.

▶ THE WRAPUP

FOR THE RECORD

Serving as captains for Tennessee today were Joshua Dobbs, Brian Randolph and Curt Maggitt.

GAME NOTES

With 254 total team rushing yards, the Vols rushed for the most yards against Florida in the Modern Era.

Freshman Jauan Jennings recorded his first TD pass as a Vol, connecting with Joshua Dobbs for a 58-yard completion. The TD also marked Dobbs' first career TD reception.

With his 58-yard TD reception in the first quarter, Dobbs became the first Tennessee QB to catch a pass since Peyton Manning did so against Arkansas (10-yard reception) on 11/15/97.

Following a handoff from Dobbs, Alvin Kamara completed a 24-yard pass to TE Ethan Wolf in the second quarter. The pass marked the first of Kamara's career at UT.

Dobbs was Tennessee's leading rusher against the Gators, rushing for 136 yards on 18 carries. His 100+ yard rushing game is the first by a Vol against Florida since Travis Stephens in 2001.

Jalen Hurd rushed for a one-yard touchdown in the second quarter and a 10-yard rushing TD in the fourth quarter. He now has scored at least one touchdown in his last five games and has had multiple TD games in four of his last five contests.

Saturday marked the first time in history Vols had two 100-yard rushers vs. Florida.

LaDarrell McNeil intercepted a pass from UF QB Will Grier in the second quarter, marking his second interception in as many games. The interception marked his second of the year and the fifth of his career.

Vols Fall To Florida, 28-27

GAINESVILLE, Fla. -- Florida scored 14 points in the final five minutes to hand Tennessee a 28-27 loss on Saturday at Ben Hill Griffin Stadium and extend the Vols' losing streak to the Gators to 11 games.

A pair of first-half trick plays gave Tennessee (2-2, 0-1 SEC) early momentum, but Florida's (4-0, 2-0 SEC) offense caught fire late. Aaron Medley's 55-yard field goal attempt with time expiring went wide right.

The Vols racked up 254 yards on the ground, their most against the Gators in the modern era. Joshua Dobbs led the way with 136 yards on 18 carries. Jalen Hurd finished with 102 yards and two scores on 28 carries.

Dobbs completed 10 of 17 passes for 83 yards and also caught a 58-yard touchdown.

Ethan Wolf hauled in three catches for 45 yards and Alvin Kamara had three catches for 33 yards.

Florida quarterback Will Grier finished 23-of-42 for 283 yards, two touchdowns and one interception. Kelvin Taylor rushed for 102 yards and two touchdowns on 19 carries.

Tennessee outgained Florida in total yards, 419-392.

The Gators took a 7-0 lead when Taylor followed a 47-yard sprint down the right sideline with a five-yard rush to the outside for the game's first score.

Tennessee answered with 5:07 left in the first quarter on a 58-yard touchdown pass from Jauan Jennings to Dobbs. The trick play featured Dobbs throwing the ball to Jennings down the line of scrimmage, catching a short pass on the right sideline and outrunning the UF secondary for the first receiving touchdown of his career. The 58-yard touchdown also marked the first time a Tennessee quarterback had caught a pass since Peyton Manning caught a 10-yard pass against Arkansas on Nov. 15, 1997.

The Vols made a bold call with another trick play on a 4th-and-2 in the second quarter at the Florida 47. Kamara threw a 24-yard pass to Wolf over the middle and three plays later Hurd punched in a one-yard score to put Tennessee up 14-7.

A Dobbs 62-yard run up the left sideline set up a 34-yard field goal by Medley with three minutes left in the second quarter to give the Vols a 17-7 lead. Dobbs filled up the box score at the half with 107 rushing yards on eight carries, the 58-yard touchdown catch and 24 yards on 5-of-9 passing.

Tennessee's lead grew to 20-7 early in the third quarter when Medley connected on a 37-yard field goal on the Vols' opening drive of the second half.

Florida climbed to within one score on a four-yard touchdown run by Taylor with 5:42 left in the third.

The Vols finished the third quarter strong. Tennessee went 5-for-5 on third downs on a 16-play, 70-yard drive and Hurd capped it off with a 10-yard touchdown run to the left side to push the Vols' lead to 27-14.

The Gators would not go away quietly. Grier hit Brandon Powell for a four-yard score to cap a 17-play, 86-yard drive and draw Florida to within 27-21.

Florida took the lead with 1:26 remaining when Grier hit Antonio Callaway for a 63-yard touchdown pass down the right sideline.

THE WRAPUP

FOR THE RECORD

Serving as captains for Tennessee were Joshua Dobbs, Brian Randolph, LaDarrell McNeil and Jalen Hurd.

GAME NOTES

True freshman wide receiver Preston Williams earned his first career start.

Williams is the third UT rookie to start this season, following in the footsteps of wide receiver Jauan Jennings and linebacker Darrin Kirkland Jr.

Tennessee is 6-2 against Arkansas in Knoxville, seeing a six-game home winning streak in the series halted.

UT now has scored on its opening possession in four of five games this season, getting a touchdown on three occasions.

Tennessee rushed for 93 yards in the first quarter and 129 total in the first half vs. the Razorbacks, who entered the contest allowing only 93.8 per game this season (ranked No. 2 in the SEC and 17th nationally).

With his passing total vs. the Hogs, Dobbs threw for 200 or more yards for the second time this season and the fifth time in his career.

Darrin Kirkland Jr. led Tennessee with four tackles in the first half, including three of the solo variety. He also had a quarterback hurry. He finished with a career-best total of seven tackles for the game.

Berry's KO return for a TD was the first game-opening kick return score by a Vol since Willie Gault took one back 92 yards vs. Kentucky in Neyland Stadium during the 1980 season.

Berry is the first Vol to have multiple kick returns for a touchdown in the same season since Willie Gault had three in 1980. the previous high of 99,123 against UT-Martin in 2010.

Vols Fall to Arkansas, 24-20

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. -- Evan Berry returned the opening kickoff 96 yards to the house to give Tennessee an early lead, but the Vols could not capitalize on late defensive stops to rally back from a second-half deficit, falling to Arkansas, 24-20, on Saturday at Neyland Stadium.

Joshua Dobbs finished 20-for-36 for 232 passing yards and had seven yards on seven carries with one rushing touchdown. Jalen Hurd had 90 yards on 19 carries in the loss.

"Too many missed tackles, but really at the end of the day and what it takes to play winning football, we just weren't able to make big plays at big moments of the game," Tennessee head coach Butch Jones said. "I give [Arkansas] credit. They were able to do that."

Berry ignited the home crowd of 101,265 when he returned the opening kickoff for a score. It marked the first time that the Vols had opened the game with a kickoff return touchdown since Nov. 22, 1980, when Willie Gault brought a kick back 92 yards for a score against Kentucky.

The Vols' offense started hot as well with Hurd sprinting 35 yards to the UT 46 on the first offensive play. Tennessee (2-3, 0-2 SEC) grew its lead to 14-0 when Dobbs dove for the front left pylon on a seven-yard run to cap an 11-play, 89-yard drive.

Arkansas (2-3, 1-1 SEC) got on the scoreboard with its next possession. A 52-yard pass from Brandon Allen to Drew Morgan put the Razorbacks at the UT 23 and three plays later Alex Collins ran for a touchdown from four yards out.

The Razorbacks knotted the game at 14-14 early in the second quarter when Allen connected with Dominique Reed on a 33-yard touchdown pass to complete a four-play, 80-yard drive.

Aaron Medley's 35-yard field goal with 9:54 left in the first half gave the Vols a 17-14 lead. The Vols went 58 yards on 14 plays on the drive, which featured a 19-yard pass from Dobbs to Alvin Kamara down the left sideline to bring UT to the Razorbacks' 21.

Arkansas drove 60 yards in nine plays to close the first half, tying the game at 17-17 with a 26-yard field goal by Cole Hedlund.

Tennessee had 275 yards at the half to Arkansas' 258. Hurd dominated the ground game with 89 yards on 15 carries before halftime.

The Razorbacks marched 80 yards down the field on the first drive of the second half with Collins punching in a one-yard score put Arkansas in front, 24-17.

Tennessee answered with a 45-yard Medley field goal, the second-longest of his career, to draw to within 24-20.

The Vols' defense kept the team in the game with three big stops.

On the ensuing Arkansas possession, Tennessee stopped the Razorbacks at their own 5-yard line and Shy Tuttle blocked a 22-yard field goal attempt by Hedlund with a surge up the middle to keep it a four-point game.

The UT defense came up big on another long Arkansas drive, stopping the Razorbacks on 3rd-and-4 from the 10-yard line. Arkansas tried a fake field goal with backup kicker Adam McFain running wide right and coming up short at the 7-yard line.

The Vols halted the Razorbacks again on 3rd-and-2 at the UT 43 when Collins slipped in the backfield on a rush to the left side.

Tennessee could not find the end zone in the fourth quarter. Arkansas ran five times and kneeled on its final possession to seal the win for the Razorbacks.

Vols Storm Back to Beat #19/16 UGA, 31-38

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. -- Joshua Dobbs threw for three touchdowns and ran for two more, leading Tennessee back from a 21-point deficit to beat No. 19/16 Georgia, 38-31, on Saturday at Neyland Stadium.

Saturday's win tied for Tennessee's (3-3, 1-2 SEC) third-largest comeback in program history. The Vols trailed, 24-3, late in the second quarter before scoring two touchdowns right before the half and three more in the second half. It also marked the second-largest UT comeback in Neyland Stadium history. The Vols rallied back from a 25-point deficit against Vanderbilt in 1987.

Dobbs threw for a career-high 312 yards, going 25-for-42, and also ran for 118 yards. Dobbs' performance on Saturday marked just the second time in Tennessee history that a Vols quarterback has thrown for 300 yards and run for 100 yards. He accomplished that feat last year when he threw for 301 yards and ran for a career-high 166 against South Carolina.

Georgia running back Sony Michel gained 145 yards on 22 carries and added 26 yards on three catches. Greyson Lambert was 15-for-32 for 279 yards and two touchdowns. Malcolm Mitchell had five catches for 85 yards and one touchdown and Reggie Davis had three receptions for 101 yards and one score.

Georgia suffered a major loss early in the game when star running back Nick Chubb went down with a left knee injury on the Bulldogs' first play.

The Bulldogs took a 7-0 lead with 6:14 left in the first quarter when Hurd fumbled at the four-yard line and Leonard Floyd returned the ball 96 yards to the opposite endzone.

Georgia grew its lead to 14-3 when Lambert hit Mitchell on a 28-yard touchdown pass to the right side of the end zone.

Marshall Morgan made a 37-yard field goal with 4:47 left in the second quarter and one minute later Davis returned a punt 70 yards for a score to push Georgia's lead to 24-3.

The Vols found some momentum late in the second quarter. On 4th-and-8, Dobbs found Josh Smith over the middle for a 39-yard touchdown pass to pull UT to within 24-10.

On the following kickoff, the Vols forced a fumble on Michel's 17-yard return and John Kelly recovered the ball at the UGA 25. Dobbs capped a five-play, 25-yard scoring drive with a two-yard touchdown pass to Kamara to pull Tennessee to within 24-17 at the half.

Tennessee tied the game at 24-24 on its second drive of the third quarter. Dobbs ran in a one-yard touchdown to cap a six-play, 67-yard drive that featured a pair of big plays. The Vols took their first lead of the game with 1:26 remaining in the third quarter. Dobbs found Kamara again for a two-yard touchdown pass to the front left pylon to wrap a seven-play, 56-yard drive and put UT ahead, 31-24.

Georgia tied the game at 31-31 when Lambert hit Davis for a 48-yard touchdown pass down the right sideline on the first play of the fourth quarter.

Dobbs ran for a five-yard touchdown run to give Tennessee a 38-31 lead with 5:48 remaining.

THE WRAPUP

FOR THE RECORD

Serving as captains for Tennessee this afternoon were Cam Sutton, Jalen Hurd, Brian Randolph and Joshua Dobbs.

GAME NOTES

The victory over Georgia was the Vols' first win over a top-25 ranked team since defeating then-No. 11 South Carolina 23-21 on Oct. 19, 2013.

In the second quarter, the Vols trailed by 21 points at 24-3. This win ties for the third-biggest comeback in program history.

The Vols came back from 21-0 down in the second quarter to beat Kentucky on Nov. 17, 2001 (W, 38-35) and 21-0 down in the third quarter to beat LSU on Sept. 26, 2005 (W, 30-27)

UT's biggest comeback was 25 points when Tennessee rallied to beat Vanderbilt on Nov. 28, 1987. Vanderbilt had led 28-3 in the second quarter; UT won 38-36.

Second time in Tennessee history a player has 300+ yards passing and 100+ yards rushing. Dobbs did it the first time in program history in the South Carolina Game last year.Tennessee rushed for 93 yards in the first quarter and 129 total in the first half vs. the Razorbacks, who entered the contest allowing only 93.8 per game this season (ranked No. 2 in the SEC and 17th nationally).

Trevor Daniel, who entered the game ranked fifth in NCAA in punting average (48.6 yards/punt) recorded his 12th, 13th and 14th punts of the season of 50+ yards. His final punt went 56 yards to the Georgia 1-yard line with 1:48 remaining.

THE WRAPUP

FOR THE RECORD

Serving as captains for Tennessee were Alvin Kamara, Brian Randolph and Joshua Dobbs.

GAME NOTES

As a team, Tennessee combined for four sacks against Alabama QB Jake Coker. The five sacks vs. Bama mark the most since the 2014 Sugar Bowl, ending the 2013 season, vs. Oklahoma (7 sacks).

The defense's five sacks were also the most for UT vs. Bama since 2005 (5 sacks).

Tennessee started two true freshmen on the right side of the offensive line against Alabama - Chance Hall and Jack Jones (first career starts). The Vols also started two true freshmen on the right side five times last year (Jashon Robertson and Coleman Thomas) most-recently against Ole Miss on Oct. 18, 2014.

Brian Randolph intercepted a pass from Alabama's Coker at the UT 24-yard line, giving his Vols possession on the UT 25 in the second quarter. The interception was Randolph's first of the season and his seventh as a Vol.

Jalen Reeves-Maybin led the Vols' defense with 11 total tackles (six solo) and one sack, his fourth double-digit tackle game of the year.

Derek Barnett recorded his third sack of the season on Coker in the second quarter.

Corey Vereen also had five total tackles including two sacks, his first career multi-sack game.

#TENNvsBAMA was trending nationally on Twitter in the first half.

Johnathon Johnson caught an 18-yard pass from Dobbs in the first quarter, his longest reception of the year.

Vols Fall to #8 Tide, 19-14

TUSCALOOSA, Ala. -- Despite a valiant performance by the Tennessee defense and a late offensive surge to seize the lead in the fourth quarter, the Vols fell to No. 8/8 Alabama, 19-14, on Saturday at Bryant-Denny Stadium.

Tennessee (3-4, 1-3 SEC) stayed within one score from start to finish thanks to an outstanding effort by its defense, which tallied 10 tackles for a loss and five sacks and made a pair of big red zone stops in the second half.

UT's five sacks were its most against Alabama (7-1, 4-1 SEC) since recording five in 2005 and the most the Tide has given up since allowing seven against Oklahoma in the 2014 Sugar Bowl at the end of the 2013 season.

Alabama has now won the last nine games in the series.

Jalen Hurd ran for 92 yards on 18 carries and had the go-ahead 12-yard rushing touchdown with 5:49 left. Joshua Dobbs finished 13-of-22 for 171 yards and one touchdown and also ran for 19 yards on 16 carries.

Alvin Kamara led the Vols with four catches for 44 yards and also carried the ball five times for 21 yards.

Alabama star running back Derrick Henry ran for 143 yards and two scores on 28 carries. Jake Coker was 21-of-27 for 247 yards and one interception.

ArDarius Stewart led all receivers with 114 yards on six catches.

The Vols mixed the run and the pass well on their opening drive, going 50 yards down the field to the Alabama 25-yard line. However, UT could not cash in with points as Aaron Medley missed a 43-yard field goal wide right.

Alabama took a 7-0 lead halfway through the first quarter when Henry capped a nine-play, 75-yard drive with a 20-yard rushing touchdown.

Tennessee answered on its next possession as Dobbs marched the Vols 75 yards down the field in 10 plays. The drive included a terrific 18-yard pass to Johnathon Johnson down the left seam and an Alabama pass interference that put UT at the Tide's 13-yard line. Dobbs hit Josh Smith in the left corner of the endzone for an 11-yard touchdown strike.

Brian Randolph came up with a big interception down the right sideline with 6:06 left in the first half, halting an Alabama drive at the UT 25.

The Vols had a chance at taking the lead right before halftime. Hurd rumbled up the middle and down the right sideline for a 29-yard gain on third-and-16 to put UT in Alabama territory. The Big Orange came up short when Medley's 51-yard field goal try went wide left.

Tennessee led Alabama in yardage at the half with 177 yards to the Crimson Tide's 133. Hurd had 65 rushing yards on 11 carries and Henry led the Tide with 53 yards on nine carries before the break.

Alabama drove 73 yards on 12 plays on its opening drive of the second half, but the Vols' defense made a goal-line stand with Cameron Sutton batting way a potential two-yard touchdown pass on a quick slant. The Crimson Tide settled for a 19-yard field goal to take a 10-7 lead.

UT went 57 yards over 13 plays on a drive at the end of the third quarter and the beginning of the fourth. The Vols tried to tie the game with 14 minutes left on a 51-yard field goal attempt by Medley, but it missed wide right.

Alabama extended its lead to 13-7 when Adam Griffith made a 28-yard field goal with 7:08 remaining after a 12-play, 56-yard drive. The UT defense made another great stand deep in its own red zone, stopping the Tide on third down at the 11-yard line.

Tennessee took its first lead of the game with 5:49 remaining after a quick four-play, 75 yard drive. Dobbs completed a 27-yard pass to Smith and a 34-yard pass to Josh Malone to set up Hurd for a 12-yard rushing touchdown. After a Medley extra point, UT led 14-13.

The Tide retook the lead on its next possession, driving 56 yards and eating 6:58 off the clock before Henry scored on a 14-yard run. Alabama went for two points but came up short, making its lead 19-14 with 2:24 to go.

THE WRAPUP

FOR THE RECORD

Tennessee captains: Josh Smith, Brian Randolph and Joshua Dobbs.

GAME NOTES

UT's 52 points scored vs. the Wildcats are the most by the Vols in SEC play since Nov. 13, 2010 vs. Ole Miss (W, 52-14).

With two rushing TDs and two passing TDs vs. Kentucky, Dobbs recorded multiple passing and rushing TDs in a game for the third time in his career (vs. Georgia 10/10/15, vs. South Carolina on 11/1/14).

In his career vs. Kentucky, Dobbs is now 3-0 with 729 yards passing and 11 TDs.

Dobbs completed a 75-yard touchdown pass to Josh Malone in the second quarter, marking the longest pass of Dobbs' career and the longest reception of Malone's career.

The 75-yard touchdown pass was also the longest by the Volunteers since an 81-yard pass by Tyler Bray to Justin Hunter vs. Montana (Sept. 3, 2011).

With a pass breakup vs. Kentucky, Cameron Sutton has 29 career passes defended for UT. He moves past Deon Grant (28) for eighth on UT's all-time list.

Evan Berry ran a 100-yard kickoff return for a touchdown, his third of the season and the fifth 100-yard TD in Tennessee history (last, L. Scott in 1999). Berry also tied Willie Gault (1980) for most kickoff returns for a TD in a single season.

Cameron Sutton ran a punt return back for an 84-yard touchdown, marking the second time this season for the Vols to score touchdowns on kickoff returns and punt returns in the same game. Prior to this season, the last time UT accomplished the feat was 1950.

Vols Ride Big Plays to 52-21 Win Over Kentucky

LEXINGTON, Ky. -- Tennessee seized momentum in the second quarter and the Vols broke away with third-quarter touchdown returns by Evan Berry and Cameron Sutton to defeat SEC rival Kentucky, 52-21, on Saturday at Commonwealth Stadium.

Tennessee's (4-4, 2-3 SEC) 52 points on the night were the Vols' most in an SEC game since a 52-14 win over Ole Miss on Nov. 13, 2010. UT was up 38-21 with just over eight minutes left in the third quarter when Berry took a kickoff back 100 yards for a score. Sutton followed that shortly after with an 84-yard punt return to the end zone.

UT has now won 30 of its last 31 games against Kentucky (4-4, 2-4 SEC). The Vols expanded their lead in the all-time series to 78-24-9.

Tennessee quarterback Joshua Dobbs was 16-of-26 for 233 passing yards, two touchdowns and one interception and also ran for 51 yards and two scores on seven carries. Jalen Hurd hat 18 carries for 61 yards and one rushing touchdown and a 37-yard touchdown catch. Josh Malone caught four passes for a career-high 103 yards and one touchdown.

The Vols outscored the Wildcats, 42-7, over a 15-minute span in the second and third quarters. UT had 482 yards of offense to UK's 349.

The Wildcats took a 7-0 lead seven minutes in when Marcus McWilson stripped the ball from Dobbs and Corey Johnson returned the fumble 77 yards to the end zone.

Two possessions later, Dobbs led the Vols 44 yards down the field in five plays and he capped the drive with a tackle-breaking 28-yard touchdown run down the left sideline to tie the game at 7-7. The score marked the 15th rushing touchdown of Dobbs' career, breaking a tie with Heath Shuler for third-most by a quarterback in Tennessee history.

The Vols took the lead when Aaron Medley connected on a 44-yard field goal early in the second quarter.

Kentucky pulled back in front, 14-10, with a 14-play, 75-yard drive that that ended with a one-yard touchdown run by quarterback Patrick Towles with 5:39 remaining in the first half.

Tennessee took command of the game in the second quarter, scoring 14 points in the final six minutes of the first half. After Towles touchdown, the Vols needed just one play to retake the lead. Dobbs connected with Malone down the right sideline for a 75-yard touchdown strike.

On UT's next possession, Alvin Kamara broke loose down the left sideline for a 63-yard gain (the Vols' longest run of the season) to set up a one-yard Dobbs touchdown run to give Tennessee a 24-14 lead at the half.

Hurd added two more Tennessee touchdowns early in the third quarter to push Tennessee's lead to 38-14. On UT's opening drive of the second half, he navigated through traffic on a 37-yard catch and serpentine run to the end zone. Darrin Kirkland Jr. intercepted Towles on UK's ensuing possession and returned the ball to the UK four-yard line to set up Hurd for a four-yard touchdown run.

Tennessee grew its lead to 52-21 with the two big special teams plays in the third quarter. Evan Berry brought a kickoff back 100 yards for a score and Cameron Sutton returned a punt 84 yards for a TD.

Tennessee captains were redshirt sophomore Kendal Vickers, senior Brian Randolph and junior Joshua Dobbs.

GAME NOTES

Tennessee tallied a touchdown on its opening possession of a game for the fourth time this season. The other games were Bowling Green, Western Carolina and Arkansas.

Two games in a row, Tennessee has dominated the opening quarter. The Vols outgained SC in total offense in the first period, 177-28. South Carolina had -2 yards passing today in the opening stanza. Last Saturday night vs. Kentucky, UT had a 144-2 edge after the opening 15 minutes.

Tennessee ended the first quarter with a 14-0 lead, marking only the second time all season SC had failed to score in the opening 15 minutes. The Vols didn't allow the Gamecocks to get on the scoreboard until the 1:03 mark of the second quarter, surrendering a 43-yard field goal. South Carolina's halftime total of three points was its lowest of the season.

Dobbs' passing effort was his fourth of 250 or more yards in his career and second this season. The other games were vs. South Carolina (301 in 2014), Kentucky (297 in 2014) and Georgia (312 in 2015).

Dobbs has connected on 43-of-74 for 556 yards with four TDs and two interceptions in two career games vs. the Gamecocks.

Vol All-American, Kansas City Chiefs All-Pro defensive back and cancer survivor Eric Berry (UT 2007-09) was honored as the #VFL Legend of the Game.

Vols Grind Out 27-24 Win Over South Carolina

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. -- Malik Foreman forced a fumble and Jalen Reeves-Maybin recovered it at the UT 13-yard line in the final minute to help Tennessee secure a 27-24 victory over South Carolina on Saturday before a crowd of 101,253 at Neyland Stadium.

For the third-straight year, the Vols (5-4, 3-3 SEC) defeated the Gamecocks (3-6, 1-6 SEC) with a late field goal. Aaron Medley gave Tennessee the lead with 9:14 left in the game when he made a 27-yard field goal.

The Vols controlled the game in the first half before South Carolina tied the game at 24-24 with three touchdowns in the third quarter

Von Pearson set career highs with eight catches for 121 yards and a touchdown. His 121 receiving yards were the most by a Vol since Justin Hunter had 141 yards and Mychal Rivera had 129 against Missouri in 2012.

UT quarterback Joshua Dobbs finished 20-of-34 for 255 yards, two touchdowns and one interception and added 35 rushing yards on 13 carries. Alvin Kamara recorded his fourth multi-touchdown game, rushing for 30 yards and a touchdown on four carries and catching three passes for 27 yards and a score. Jalen Hurd had 90 yards on 23 carries.

South Carolina's Perry Orth was 20-of-39 for 233 yards and three touchdowns. Gamecocks star wideout Pharoh Cooper tallied four catches for 47 yards and a touchdown.

Tennessee was strong out of the gate, marching 67 yards down the field on the game's opening possession to score on a four-yard touchdown run by Kamara. Kamara turned a short pass into a 20-yard gain up the right sideline early in the drive and set the Vols up at the six-yard line with a 23-yard run down the left sideline. The touchdown marked the fourth time this season UT had scored on its opening drive.

The Vols' lead grew to 14-0 after UT's second possession when Dobbs connected with Pearson for a 37-yard touchdown pass.

Medley made a 44-yard field goal with five minutes left in the second quarter and South Carolina's Elliott Fry made a 43-yard field goal with just over one minute remaining. The Vols took a 17-3 lead into the half Tennessee had 259 yards to the Gamecocks' 114 in the first half. Hurd had 79 yards on 14 carries and Pearson had 58 yards on four catches before the break.

South Carolina seized momentum early in the third quarter. USC pulled to within 17-10 when Jonathan Walton hauled in a 10-yard touchdown catch from Orth on the Gamecocks' opening drive of the third quarter. USC drove 80 yards in 11 plays.

The Gamecocks forced a fumble inside the Vols' own 10-yard line on UT's next possession and recovered the ball at the seven. After the Vols' defense kept South Carolina out of the end zone on three-straight plays, Orth completed a seven-yard touchdown pass to Jerell Adams on fourth down to tie the game at 17-17 with 8:29 left in the third quarter

Dobbs marched the Vols 75 yards down the field in 11 plays on UT's next possession and hit Kamara for an 11-yard touchdown pass to retake the lead, 24-17.

South Carolina answered with a nine-play, 75-yard drive capped off by a five-yard touchdown pass from Orth to Cooper to knot the score at 24-24 with under a minute left in the third quarter.

Medley made a 27-yard field goal to put Tennessee back in front, 27-24, with 9:14 remaining.

The Gamecocks drove 63 yards down the field on their final drive, which ended when Orth completed a pass to Adams and the senior tight end turned up field. Foreman caught him and stripped the ball and Reeves-Maybin recovered it at the UT 13.

Vols Bowl Eligible With 24-0 Win Over N. Texas

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. -- Alvin Kamara ran for 127 yards and two scores to lead Tennessee to a 24-0 homecoming win over North Texas on Saturday at Neyland Stadium. The Vols are now bowl eligible for the second-consecutive year.

The Vols' (6-4) win over North Texas (1-9) also marked the earliest date that UT had become bowl eligible since the 2007 season when the Big Orange recorded its sixth win on Nov. 3, 2007. Tennessee is now bowl eligible in back-to-back seasons for the first time since the 2009 and 2010 seasons.

The victory before the 96,197 in attendance at Neyland Stadium was also UT's first shutout since a 45-0 win over Austin Peay on Aug. 31, 2013, and the first time that North Texas had been shut out since a 41-0 loss to Alabama on Sept. 17, 2011. The Vols have won three games in a row for the first time since 2010.

Tennessee improved to 70-19-3 all-time in homecoming games with wins in 29 of its last 32 homecoming contests.

Kamara ran for 127 yards on 15 carries with a pair of scores for his fifth multi-touchdown game of the season.

UT's Joshua Dobbs finished 15-of-23 for 136 yards and an interception. Josh Malone led the Vols' receivers with four catches for 38 yards.

North Texas quarterback DaMarcus Smith went 12-of-25 for 103 yards. Jeffrey Wilson had 52 rushing yards on 14 carries and tight end Marcus Smith hauled in five catches for 46 yards.

The Vols had 409 yards of offense and limited North Texas to 199 yards, marking the fewest yards Tennessee has allowed since holding UT-Martin to 142 yards on Sept. 4, 2010.

Tennessee took a 7-0 lead just over a minute into the game when Alvin Kamara sprinted 27 yards up the right sideline for the game's first score, capping a five-play, 56-yard drive.

Jalen Hurd punched in a one-yard rushing touchdown on the first play of the second quarter to complete an eight-play, 71 yard dive and push the Vols lead to 14-0.

Aaron Medley's 34-yard field goal with 2:41 left in the first half gave Tennessee a 17-0 advantage heading into halftime. The Vols outgained the Mean Green in the first half, 226 yards to 101 yards. Kamara had 70 rushing yards on five carries and Hurd had 60 yards on 12 carries before the break.

THE WRAPUP

FOR THE RECORD

Tennessee captains were senior Brian Randolph, senior LaDarrell McNeil, senior Johnathon Johnson and junior Joshua Dobbs.

GAME NOTES

The Vols donned orange pants for the first time this season, sporting a full orange uniform for the first time since last year's Alabama game (Oct. 25, 2014).

The full orange combination was popular under Head Coach Johnny Majors in the 1980s. The Vols are 3-3 in their last six times wearing orange-on-orange.

With two regular season games still to play in 2015, the Vols have eclipsed the 2,000-yard rushing plateau. This is only the fourth time in the past 16 years Tennessee has accomplished that feat.

After rolling up 237 yards vs. North Texas today, Tennessee stands at 2,103 on the season through 10 contests. The Vols rushed for 1,903 last season in 13 games.

In the last 12 years, Tennessee's best rushing tallies are 2,261 yards in 2013 and 2,418 in 2004.

UT rushed for 200+ yards for the sixth time this season with its fourth-best total.

With the win, the Vols became bowl eligible for the second year in a row for the first time since back-to-back trips in 2009 and 2010.

Tennessee played host to its 92nd homecoming game and improved to 70-19-3 in those contests.

The Vols have won 29 of their last 32 homecoming games dating back to 1984.

Tennessee improved to 14-7 all-time vs. teams from Texas.

THE WRAPUP

FOR THE RECORD

Tennessee captains were redshirt senior Brian Randolph, redshirt senior Kyler Kerbyson, junior Joshua Dobbs and redshirt senior Owen Williams.

GAME NOTES

Johnathon Johnson started for the Vols at wide receiver against Mizzou, his first start of the season and the third start of his career.

With 248 rushing yards vs. Mizzou, the Vols had their most rushing yards in a season since 2004 (2,418) with 2,351 in 2015.

Freshman Kahlil McKenzie recorded his first career sack against the Tigers in the second quarter.

UT outgained Missouri in yardage during the first quarter, 98-19. Over a four-game span, the Vols outgained opponents 589-102 (UT 144 - 2 UK, UT 177 - 28 SC, UT 170 - 53 NT) in the first quarter.

Trevor Daniel added to his impressive punting record, landing two punts inside the 10 for his 12th and 13th of the season.

Tennessee snapped three-game losing streak vs. Missouri, dating back to 2012 when the Tigers joined the SEC

With a 6-yard reception on the first play in the second quarter, sophomore TE Ethan Wolf became the only Vol with at least one catch in every game he's played this season and has a reception in his last 11 straight games.

Tennessee rushed for 248 yards vs. the Tigers, the most rushing yards allowed by Mizzou on the year. On the season, Missouri had averaged only 113.7 rushing yards allowed per game entering the contest.

Hurd, Vols Rumble Past Mizzou, 19-8

COLUMBIA, Mo. -- Jalen Hurd rumbled to a career-high 151 rushing yards and Aaron Medley made four field goals to lead Tennessee to a 19-8 win over Missouri on Saturday at Faurot Field.

The Vols (7-4, 4-3 SEC) benefited from another outstanding performance by their defense. UT limited Missouri (5-6, 1-6 SEC) to 223 total yards (88 rushing, 135 passing) and forced two turnovers in the win.

Tennessee quarterback Joshua Dobbs finished 16-of-24 for 89 passing yards and ran for 54 yards and a score on 10 carries. Alvin Kamara had seven rushes for 43 yards and four catches for 23 yards. Von Pearson caught a game-high seven passes for 28 yards.

Hurd's 151 yards on 34 carries were the most rushing yards by a Vol since Dobbs ran for 166 against South Carolina on Nov. 1, 2014. Hurd also became the first Vol since Rajion Neal in 2013 to rush for 1,000 yards in a season. He has 1,038 on the year.

Missouri's Drew Lock completed 13 of 30 for 135 yards and one pick. Russell Hansbrough ran for 41 yards on 12 carries.

After Medley made two field goals in the first quarter and a third early in the second quarter, Dobbs ran for an eight-yard score with 17 second remaining in the first half to give the Vols a 16-0 halftime lead.

Medley connected from 30 yards out in the third quarter to push UT's lead to 19-0.

Missouri, which honored retiring head coach Gary Pinkel with videoboard tributes throughout the game, scored its lone touchdown on a one-yard run by Lock with 9:49 remaining and the Tigers converted the two-point try.

After shutting out the Tigers in the first half and the third quarter, the Vols have not allowed an opponent to score in their last eight quarters. It is UT's longest shutout streak since back-to-back shutouts (eight quarters) against Vanderbilt and Kentucky in 2002.

Tennessee held opponents scoreless for a stretch of 125:59 over the last three games.

Tennessee head coach Butch Jones stressed the team's need for turnovers entering Saturday's game and the Vols' defense delivered.

Cameron Sutton made his first interception of the season, picking off Lock along the sideline at the Tigers' 42-yard line on MU's opening drive.

Medley set a new career high with four made field goals, marking the third time he had three in a game. He has made his last eight field goal attempts.

He gave the Vols a 3-0 lead with 8:19 left in the first quarter when he made a 34-yard field goal from the left hash mark. He extended UT's lead to 6-0 with a 22-yard field goal with 1:05 remaining in the opening quarter. Tennessee went up 9-0 early in the second quarter when Medley made a 44-yarder. Medley's 30-yard attempt in the third quarter was good and gave the Vols a 19-0 lead.

Saturday's game featured a kickoff temperature of 28 degrees, making it the fourth-coldest start to a game in Tennessee history and the Vols' coldest since a 42-7 win over Vanderbilt on Nov. 26, 1977, in Knoxville when kickoff temperature was 25 degrees.

The coldest game in UT history was a 7-0 win over Kentucky in 10-degreee weather in Knoxville on Nov. 25, 1950.

THE WRAPUP

FOR THE RECORD

Tennessee captains were redshirt seniors Brian Randolph and Alex Ellis and junior Joshua Dobbs.

GAME NOTES

Getting his first career start for the Vols was true freshman LB Austin Smith.

Smith is the sixth true freshman to start this season for Tennessee, joining OL Chance Hall, WR Jauan Jennings, OL Jack Jones, LB Darrin Kirkland Jr. and WR Preston Williams.

In their 53-28 win, the Vols scored their most points vs. an SEC foe since beating Mississippi State, 59-21, on Nov. 15, 2003.

Tennessee won its second straight over Vanderbilt and scored its most points in the series since 1994 (65-0).

Tennessee has scored 412 points in 2015, the most since the Vols tallied 434 points in 2012.

The Vols have registered their most games in a season with 50-or-more points (4) since they recorded four in 1993.

UT out-gained Vanderbilt in the first quarter, 163-146. That bumped UT's advantage in the opening 15 minutes of the last five games to 752-248.

With Saturday's attendance of 98,327, Tennessee posted a final 2015 home attendance average of 100,584. That mark is UT's highest average home attendance since the 2008 season when the Vols averaged 101,448 per game.

UT's defense continued to be stout on third down. The Vols held Vandy to 1-for-6 on third-down conversions in the first half and 5-of-14 for the game.

Vols Win 53-28 Over Vandy On Senior Night

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. -- Tennessee piled up 523 total yards as the Vols claimed their fifth-straight win with a 53-28 Senior Day victory over Vanderbilt on Saturday at Neyland Stadium.

Joshua Dobbs accounted for 233 yards of offense and three touchdowns in the Vols' regular-season finale at Neyland Stadium. Jalen Hurd rushed for more than 100 yards for the fifth time this year, finishing with 120 yards.

The win gave Tennessee (8-4, 5-3 SEC) its first eight-win season since going 10-4 in 2007. UT is also on a five-game winning streak, which is Tennessee's best since also winning the final five regular-season games in 2007.

Vanderbilt (4-8, 2-6) gave up its most points of the season after entering the game allowing just 18.1 points per game. It is the most points the Vols have scored in an SEC game since a 59-21 win over Mississippi State in 2003.

Eighteen seniors went through the "T" one final time at Neyland Stadium and Tennessee honored them with a pregame ceremony.

Dobbs finished with 13-of-21 passing for 140 yards and two touchdown and rushed 11 times for 93 yards and a touchdown. Jalen Hurd rumbled to 123 yards on 19 carries, including a career-long 48-yard run in the second half. He also had a second-half touchdown. The Vols racked up 331 rushing yards in the win, marking their eighth game with 200 or more rushing yards and second with 300 or more.

Vanderbilt quarterback Kyler Shurmur finished 15-of-34 passing for 209 yards, three touchdowns and one interception. Ralph Webb led the Commodores offense with 149 rushing yards on 21 carries.

Dobbs found Von Pearson for a 17-yard touchdown strike in the first quarter as UT established momentum early. The Vols led 27-14 at halftime after closing out the first half with two big plays in the second quarter. Cameron Sutton had an 85-yard punt-return touchdown with 4:36 remaining and Todd Kelly Jr. intercepted Shurmur with 23 seconds left in the half to halt a Vandy drive at the UT 8-yard line.

Derek Barnett recorded a safety, his second sack of the day, five minutes into the second half and Tennessee stayed in control until the end of the game.

Sutton has a UT single-season record 467 punt-return yards on the season, breaking the previous school record of 457 yards set by Bobby Majors in 1969. Sutton also became just the fifth Vol to run two punts back for a touchdown in a single season, joining Bobby Majors (1969, 1971), Eddie Brown (1973), Stanley Morgan (1975) and Terry Fair (1996).

Early in the second half, Dobbs broke Jimmy Streater's 1978 UT single-season record for most rushing yards by a quarterback (593).

THE WRAPUP

FOR THE RECORD

Tennessee captains were redshirt seniors Brian Randolph, Max Arnold and Kyler Kerbyson, along with junior Joshua Dobbs.

GAME NOTES

With 130 yards rushing against the Wildcats, RB Jalen Hurd was named the 2016 Outback Bowl MVP and became the first player in Tennessee history to rush for 100-plus yard in two bowl games. Hurd also had 122 yards in the 2015 TaxSlayer Bowl vs. Iowa.

In its fourth appearance in the 30th anniversary Outback Bowl and its first since 2008, the Vols improve to 3-1 all-time in their Outback Bowl appearances.

The Volunteers move to a 27-24 all-time Bowl game record. Tennessee's 51 all-time bowl appearances tie for fourth all-time in college football history.

Head Coach Butch Jones has now led the Vols to consecutive bowl wins following last season's 45-28 victory over Iowa in the TaxSlayer Bowl on Jan. 2, 2015.

The win gave the Vols their ninth victory of the season for the first time since 2007, when they went 10-4

The Vols' six-game winning streak to close the season was their longest since winning the final six games of the 2003 regular season.

Alvin Kamara drew his first career start at running back.

With his final start at free safety in the Outback Bowl, redshirt senior Brian Randolph became the all-time leader for career games played at Tennessee with 53.

#23 Vols Dominate In 45-6 Outback Bowl Win

TAMPA, Fla. -- #23 Tennessee pounded its way to a 45-6 victory over #13 Northwestern in the 30th anniversary Outback Bowl on Friday before a mostly-orange crowd of 53,202 at Raymond James Stadium.

It was the largest margin of victory for the Vols in a bowl game in program history.

The Vols (9-4) racked up 226 rushing yards, led by Outback Bowl MVP Jalen Hurd, who racked up 130 yards rushing and a touchdown, becoming the first Vol to rush for 100 rushing yards in two bowl games. Joshua Dobbs ran for 48 yards and two touchdowns, and Alvin Kamara added 53 rushing yards and one score.

Dobbs also completed 14 of 25 passes for 166 yards, hitting nine different receivers. The Vols had 420 total offensive yards.

The Tennessee defense limited Northwestern (10-3) to 261 yards, intercepted four passes and totaled four sacks.

Evan Berry accounted for the final interception of the day, catching a deflected pass in the Tennessee end zone and running 100 yards back for a touchdown in the final minute.

With the win, Tennessee improved to 27-24 all-time in bowl games. The Vols, who won the 2015 TaxSlayer Bowl against Iowa, have posted back-to-back bowl wins in consecutive seasons for the first time since winning the 1996 and the 1997 Florida Citrus Bowls.

UT's nine wins are its most since going 10-4 in the 2007 season. The Vols close the year with a six-game winning streak, their longest since winning six-straight to end the 2003 regular season.

Both offenses stalled early in the first quarter. After a Malik Foreman interception set the Vols up at the Northwestern 22-yard line with 6:53 remaining in the quarter, Aaron Medley missed a 49-yard field goal off of the right upright. A pair of UT defensive penalties aided the Wildcats on their ensuing drive, but Northwestern came up empty as well when Jack Mitchell sent a 42-yard field goal attempt wide right.

Tennessee's offense came alive late in the first quarter. Josh Dobbs directed a seven-play, 75-yard drive, highlighted by a 42-yard completion to Alex Ellis. Dobbs scored on a 14-yard run to cap the drive, marking his 10th rushing touchdown on the season.

The Vols' lead grew to 10-0 after an 11-play, 46-yard drive early in the second quarter. Medley made a 35-yard field goal after Tennessee's rushing attack carried the Vols into the red zone.

Northwestern scored on a five-yard rush by Justin Jackson with 5:40 left in the first half. The Wildcats missed the extra point wide left.

Kamara gave Tennessee a 17-6 halftime lead when he sprinted to the front right pylon for an 11-yard touchdown run, his seventh on the season. The Vols had 197 yards to Northwestern's 127 in the first half. Dobbs connected with Ellis for the two longest plays of the opening half (42 yards, 22 yards) and Hurd gained 44 yards on eight carries.

Hurd rumbled to 52 yards on the ground in the third quarter, including a three-yard score with 4:40 on the clock that extended the Vols' lead to 24-6.

Dobbs tip-toed his way down the right sideline for an 18-yard touchdown run early in the fourth quarter to extend Tennessee's lead to 31-6.

John Kelly punched in a one-yard touchdown run with 4:24 remaining and Berry kept UT's rowdy fans on their feet with his 100-yard pick six that left eight seconds on the game clock.

Alex Ellis had the two biggest plays of the first half with catches of 42 yards and 22 yards. Ellis, who entered the game with five catches for 43 yards this season, finished with three catches for a career-high 74 yards.

MEDIA INFORMATION

The following is a list of media policies for coverage of 2016 University of Tennessee spring football practice. We appreciate the cooperation in adhering to these policies.

Coach Jones, assistant coaches and selected players will be available to the media for interviews per the schedule listed below. When the team practices at Haslam Field, interviews will take place following practice on the practice field closest to the north end of the Neyland-Thompson Sports Complex. For those days when practices occur at Neyland Stadium, those interviews will take place in the south end zone.

Student-athletes should not be contacted by the media for interviews by any method outside of scheduled interview times.

Following practices open to the media, interviews will take place either in the Ray and Lucy Hand Digital Studio or on the field. True freshmen are not available for interviews, and student-athletes should not be contacted by the media for interviews by any method outside of scheduled interview times.

Interview requests for Coach Jones outside of standard interview times should be made through Senior Associate Athletic Director for Communications Ryan Robinson (E-mail: ryan.robinson@utk.edu, Office: 865-974-4167, Cell: 865-410-9988).

Requests for player or coach interviews should be made at least 24 hours in advance of the practice for which you are requesting an interview by contacting Stephen K. Lee via e-mail at sklee@utk.edu or by cell 504-259-0907.

Practices will typically be held at Haslam Field, and media will be notified in advance when practice is being held in Neyland Stadium.

GENERAL PRACTICE COVERAGE GUIDELINES

Tennessee football practices will be open for viewing during individual periods. Still photography and video will be allowed during selected individual periods. Team periods will be closed to the media. All practices are closed to the general public.

Media members are required to sign in daily at the field entrance gate off Pat Head Summitt Drive across from Lindsey Nelson Stadium to obtain practice coverage credentials. Please notify Stephen K. Lee (sklee@utk.edu) if you wish to attend practice. There is a practice viewing area and designated shooting area for media on the sideline adjacent to Pat Head Summitt Drive.

Members of the media are not permitted to use cell phones at practice, report on injuries or player attendance, or any other relevant news items witnessed during practice (including Tweets) until after Coach Jones's post-practice comments have concluded. All dialogue between players and coaches at practice is considered confidential. Please use discretion in reporting practice in such areas as plays, formations and injuries. If there is any question in your mind about what may be reported, please consult with the head coach or the media relations department.

Photographers can only shoot from the sidelines at practice, with no end zone shots or any shots depicting team formations. Media Relations personnel will inform media when viewing/filming sessions end and can answer any questions regarding practice protocol. Interviews are not allowed during practice or while the players are going to, or leaving, the practice field. The training and locker room areas are off limits for interviews.

The head coach will provide all information regarding injuries and administrative information (discipline, etc.) during his post-practice media sessions. Any additions to/or updates will be provided by the Media Relations office, and any questions concerning these areas should be directed to the Media Relations office.

Outside of designated practice times, members of the media should not be in the complex unless by appointment through Media Relations. The working space for media, including phone and internet access, is in the media relations office on the ground floor of the Anderson Training Center.

SPRING FOOTBALL MEDIA INFORMATION

LIVE ELECTRONIC MEDIA INTERVIEW REQUESTS

Radio – Only members of the coaching staff can participate in radio interviews. SEC rules prevent student-athletes from appearing on live radio programs.

Television – Because of contractual obligations, Tennessee coaches are not available to be in studio to appear on sportscasts or television shows. To arrange individual sit-down interviews with the head coach or player, contact the Media Relations office.

Internet – As specified by the Southeastern Conference, players are not allowed to participate in live internet chat sessions. Contractual obligations do not allow any of the coaches to participate in live chat sessions.
